Know people who put the guide out and like having it to share with others. Have so many things around house can look up and compare value.

For almost 30 years, Schroeder's Antiques Price Guide has been our #1 bestselling title. The reasons for its success are simple: annually, 300 different advisors, each an expert in their field(s), carefully review each category for accuracy, supply new listings, and provide all-new color photographs for their subjects; and more than 700 categories accompanied by representative listings, photos, and brief histories about each subject are included. This 29th edition boasts a revised directory that accommodates the recent shift from traditional print catalogs to online auction catalogs and auction websites that now post results strictly on the internet. And as always, a complete directory of advisors is provided in the back of the book so that readers may contact our experts directly for advice. Several new categories have been added to this edition, many in the glass field, including Atterbury Company and Kanawha, and many sections have been expanded to feature more listings and additional historical company facts. We have also added several more people to our already diverse board of advisors, who see to it that only the most accurate data remains. It's no wonder that Schroeder's is still the most reliable source for dealers and collectors across the nation, for the lowest price you'll find for such a massive reference on antiques.
