Take your understanding of French language and culture to the next level with SEQUENCES. With more cultural content than traditional Intermediate / Advanced textbooks, the text's thematic threads are devoted to mature, interesting topics that intertwine the study of grammar and culture with highly contextualized discussions of specific films and pertinent authentic readings. SEQUENCES exposes you to recent French films, pertinent readings about the films, and activities that empower you to discover the many facets of French and Francophone life while improving your communication, grammar and vocabulary skills.

About the Author Dr. Bissire is an associate professor of French at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Her degrees include a Ph.D. in French from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and an M.A. in English from the Université d'Aix-en-Provence, and she is Agrégée de l'Université in English. She has published articles on the 18th century and women's education and is the co-editor of a 2006 special issue of Women in French Studies entitled "French/Francophone Culture and Literature Through Film." She includes film in her teaching at all levels of the curriculum. Dr. Bissire is a member of Women in French and serves on the Executive Council of the American Association of Teachers of French.
