By CustomerGreat insight on the background and thinking of this highly respected, religious leader. I have gained even more respect for the achievements he has made by reading about the challenges he and his wife faced because of their strong Christian faith. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. One of those forever books! By J. Castro Although this was written many many years ago, the message is still very timely! Even though I read this book over 20 years ago it is one of those that has sat on the bookshelf of my mind as being most memorable! I actually bought this for a friend and hope he reads it and is blessed as I was blessed. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. An inspiring true testimony of Pat Robertson By Jean from Knoxville I have read this book several times and find that it always increases my faith. When we think of Pat Robertson today, we think of a very successful man who has raised up a television network that broadcasts all around the world. But this simple little book tells the struggles that brought that miracle about. This is about a man who sold all that he had and gave it to the poor. It's the story of a man who believed and obeyed God and walked as a friend of God. I do like the first half of the book better than the second. The first half is about the beginning of Pat's Christian walk, the story of his salvation and his first steps toward becoming a disciple. The second section relates more about the "business" side of his ministry and his struggles in raising up the Christian Broadcasting Network. But throughout the entire book you read of his complete reliance upon the Lord for guidance and provision. It is truly a book about miracle and what can happen when a man gives himself 100% to God. You can't help but be inspired when you read this book. A simple paperback book can certainly give you a lot of faith as you find yourself thinking, "If God can do it for Pat Robertson, He can also do it for me."

Founder of the world's first and most influential Christian television network, host of The 700 Club for over 30 years, former presidential candidate, founder of both the Christian Coalition and the American Center for Law and Justice, and unchallenged leader of the "Christian Right," Pat Robertson is an important figure by anyone's standard. Pat's own words about how it all began are an irresistible and unforgettable reading experience.
