

(Library ebook) The AZ of Death and Dying: Social, Medical, and Cultural Aspects

The AZ of Death and Dying: Social, Medical, and Cultural Aspects

From Brand: Greenwood

ebooks | Download PDF | *ePub | DOC | audiobook

DOWNLOAD

+

READ ONLINE

#2321247 in Books Greenwood 2014-02-17Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 10.00 x 1.00 x 7.011, .0 #File Name: 1440803439442 pages | File size: 63.Mb

From Brand: Greenwood : The AZ of Death and Dying: Social, Medical, and Cultural Aspects before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The AZ of Death and Dying: Social, Medical, and Cultural Aspects:

This engaging and informative resource provides readers with an understanding of the social, cultural, and historical influences that shape our encounters with death, dying, and bereavementa universal experience across humanity.

Provides comprehensive yet easily accessible and concise entries that offer insight into the expanding study of death, dying, and bereavement Contains more than 200 engaging entries from key thinkers and practitioners within the interdisciplinary field of death studies Addresses a wide range of topics of both contemporary and historical interest, including memorial tattoos, Facebook grieving, and so-called "dark tourism," which reflect shifting attitudes and practices surrounding end-of-life issues

"[T]he new and updated information and reasonable price of this work make it a worthwhile purchase for academic, public, and workplace libraries." - ARBA "This valuable publication could serve as an update to the comparable Encyclopedia of Death and Dying . . . easy to read and understand. . . . Professionals in the health care field may want to recommend this publication to patients who are looking for topical overviews. It will be a good purchase for academic and public libraries. Summing Up: Recommended. Lower-level undergraduates through professionals/practitioners; general readers." - Choice About the Author Michael Brennan, PhD, is associate professor of sociology and director of the Center for Death Education and Bioethics at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse.