A Great Read By Customer Has all the major horror films and many of the more obscure ones included. Provides a great deal of knowledge and judgement concerning each film. A must have for any serious horror film fan. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. This Book Scared Me... By Jason Peter Scherer I remember having this book years ago. One particular page used to scare the heebeegeebees outta me when I was younger, the page on the movie, "Cat People". The image of the person turning into a cat and opening its mouth in an evil cry, gave me the shivers. I used to avoid that page at all costs. Probably wouldn't bother me now if I looked at it.

Has it all--from the merely creepy to the truly fresh-crawling; from the riveting to the ridiculous; from the present danger to the terror of the unknown--fun films leap out at you from every page. Horror films are the most daring, most interesting, and most exciting type of film being made today. The unpredictable thrill lurks behind every frame. We never know exactly when the monster is going to poke his head through the wall. This review of the scariest and craziest is just as unpredictable: surprising you at every turn with an obscure masterpiece or an odd bit of trivia about your favorite classic. Darrell Moore not only singles out the best of classic horror but also takes you to oft-neglected crypts containing some of the strangest and most excruciatingly bad horror films ever to rise out of the ground! You'll be shocked and delighted with every turn of the page!
