

[Get free] The National Business Employment Weekly Jobs Rated Almanac (National Business Employment Weekly Career Guides)

The National Business Employment Weekly Jobs Rated Almanac (National Business Employment Weekly Career Guides)

Les Krantz

*DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF | ePub

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#14967761 in Books 1995-04-10Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 8.94 x 1.01 x 6.10l, .0 #File Name:
047105495X352 pages | File size: 49.Mb

Les Krantz : The National Business Employment Weekly Jobs Rated Almanac (National Business Employment Weekly Career Guides) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The National Business Employment Weekly Jobs Rated Almanac (National Business Employment Weekly Career Guides):

3 of 7 people found the following review helpful. Blatant Inaccuracies in These ListingsBy Diane HollingsworthMy review is based on excerpts that appeared in the newspaper. I am a florist who employs 10 people; we have worked and networked with many florists, and can say conclusively that the rating of "florist" as the 5th least stressful job is totally unbelievable. Although this information reportedly comes from telephone surveys, there is NO WAY anyone spoke to a real florist to arrive at this conclusion! All of us have worked a variety of jobs, none more stressful than floristry. I won't go into the many reasons why this is so; my point is, this rating is so far from realistic that I have zero confidence in these ratings.

What's most important to you in a job--high pay, good benefits, long-term security, and a pleasant work environment? Or maybe you're the type who thrives on travel, adventure, and a tough new challenge every day. Whatever you're looking for in a job, this book helps you find it. This almanac describes hundreds of jobs--from air traffic controller, civil engineer, and travel agent to court reporter, actuary, and advertising account executive--and rates them according to a wide range of important criteria, letting you match your talents, needs, goals, and desires with the job that's right for you. Profiles 250 white-collar and blue-collar jobs and careers Provides an indispensable resource for recent grads, career-changers, and those returning to the work force

From the PublisherThis outstanding resource ranks 250 jobs according to various criteria: the working environment, security, stress, income, employment outlook, physical demands, travel opportunity, perks, and benefits. Contains brief job descriptions in addition to the rankings, as well as guidance from the NBEW for career changers.From the Back CoverWhat's most important to you in a job--high pay, good benefits, long-term security, and a pleasant work environment? Or maybe you're the type who thrives on travel, adventure, and a tough new challenge every day. Whatever you're looking for in a job, this book helps you find it. This almanac describes hundreds of jobs--from air traffic controller, civil engineer, and travel agent to court reporter, actuary, and advertising account executive--and rates them according to a wide range of important criteria, letting you match your talents, needs, goals, and desires with the job that's right for you.Profiles 250 white-collar and blue-collar jobs and careers Provides an indispensable resource for recent grads, career-changers, and those returning to the work forceAbout the AuthorLES KRANTZ is an author, journalist, and editor who specializes in interpreting the everyday significance of statistics. His other popular books include What the Odds Are: A to Z Odds on Everything You Hoped or Feared Would Happen and America by the Numbers: Facts and Figures from the Weighty to the Way-Out. Contributor TONY LEE is Editor of the National Business Employment Weekly and Managing Your Career, and his articles have appeared in dozens of national publications, including The Wall Street Journal and American Demographics.